1 Lilacs in Bloom

12 3/4 x 18 1/8

Note on back of painting: I tried to catch the feeling of Lilacs at the RBG. Lilacs done outside at the Royal Botanical Gardens 2001
PST is included in price: $432.00 CAN

2 Lilies

20 x 13 1/2

Note on back of painting:

These Lilies are really fragrant. As I painted this flower the room was filled with this wonderful fragrance. This made the painting a total experience. The fragrance greeted me each time I started painting making the painting experience just that much more enjoyable.

PST is included in price: $540.00 CAN

3 White Rose

6 x 6

Note on back of painting:

I love the white roses in summer. It is really interesting to see how much colour you can see in a white petal. I try to push the colour a little further to let the flower take shape.

PST is included in price: $162.00 CAN sold

4 Summer Daisies

12 1/4 x 9 1/4

Note on back of painting:

Daisies are a favorite flower of mine. Their simplicity is refreshing and joyful. I enjoyed painting these as if they were growing in the wild.

PST is included in price: $297.00 CAN sold

5 Spring Garden

27 1/4 x 20 1/2

Note on back of painting: I love the bulb room in the Mediterranean Garden Greenhouse, at the RBG. It brings spring early, refreshes the soul. I painted this from some photographs that I had made in the gardens. Just painting this picture made it feel like spring.
PST is included in price: $999.00 CAN sold

6 Purple Iris

8 1/5 x 5 1/2

Note on back of painting: Siberian Iris are such a wonderful flower to paint. They are available all year round from the florist. The flower heads are beautiful and complex.
PST is included in price: $162.00 CAN sold

7 Daisy Mum

12 x 7 1/2

Note on back of painting: The small florets in the flower head were really interesting. The spiral that is formed is actually a double spiral. It is quite intricate in what first appears to be a simple flower to paint.
PST is included in price: $189.00 CAN sold

8 Spring Tulips

9 x 13

Note on back of painting:
I painted these in April at my parent's home just as the tulip leaves were breaking through the ground. I had to use some tulips from the florist. I can't wait to have the tulips blooming in the garden this spring.
PST is included in price: $297.00 CAN sold
